- 3. Approval of 4.29.2025 Park Minutes:
 - a. Member Martha Vrieze motioned and member Matt Wohlenhaus seconded to approve the minutes.
Passed. 4 yeas / 0 nays

- 4. Tabled / Revisit Items
 - a. Signs at ballfield. Brandy Ramer is still waiting for Shea Design estimate. Joe Adams will check with the Midwest Signtech of Rochester, LLC. The signs will be tabled for next meeting.

- 5. Old Business
 - a. Grants: Nothing new at the moment. Applying for a $10,000 grant for renovating the bathrooms at Riverside.
 - b. Riverside Park:
 - Hockey Rink/Basketball Court: Asphalt/Tar will be complete this week. Miscommunication with pricing, got billed for 1 court instead of 2. They are eating some of the costs. Joe Adams was able to still achieve an amount under budget.
 - Bandshell: The Jazz was supposed to play tonight, but it got rained out. So they will come back on Monday. Rock is laid and smoothed out. Brackets are added to people can hang banners. Need to wait and see how the dumpsters work out.
 - Star: They started to lay the pad, but hit a tree stump, so Joe will take the grinder down and help with that. Would like the concrete down before school gets out.

- c. Campground: Nothing new.
- d. Bergmann Park: Nothing at the moment.
- e. Slingerland Park:
 - Pickleball: On its way. Concrete is this week.
- f. Mantor Field: All mowed, just needs weeding. It's been steady.
- g. K-M Dog Park: Good so far. No messes yet.
- h. Denneson Field: Curbs are put in, grass is slowing coming in. League starts up Thursday night.
- i. Community Gardens: Looks like 1 person backed out and called city, but we rented them out to someone else, so he needs to contact him.
- j. Community / Park Tree Management: No updates.

6. City Staff Updates / Reports

- a. Staying busy, all working hard. Council meeting is going to 1 a month starting in June.

7. Joint Ventures Updates
